Non-member delegations: Amnesty International, Greenpeace, Interpol, Palestine, United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), United Nations Environmental Programm (UNEP), United Nations High

Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), World Bank, World Trade
Organization (WTO)

ECO = Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) Members
SC = SECURITY COUNCIL Members

All country delegations may have between 4 and 7 delegates (8 if the country is both in ECO and in SC). Each delegate is in a different committee.

Amnesty International, Greenpeace, Interpol, Palestine, UNESCO, UNEP, UNHCR, and WTO are represented by 2 delegates each: Interpol in the Disarmament and International Security Committee (GA1), Amnesty International in the Social, Humanitarian, and Cultural Committee (GA3), Palestine and UNESCO in the Special, Political, and Decolonization Committee (GA4), Greenpeace and UNEP in the Environmental Committee (EC), World Bank and WTO in the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC). As they are not members of the UN, they cannot vote, but they are very important for the discussion of various topics, and therefore their voices must be heard. They can sign and present resolutions.

The Security Council is an emergency organ. Delegates must be very well prepared and aware of the general situation of world politics as a crisis situation may occur which will need to be dealt with.
